Terrybear's Cloisonné Collection features elegant designs in a variety of rich color options. Each urn takes multiple days to handcraft and is truly a unique work of art. A personalized touch can be added with use of an engravable urn pendant.

HANDCRAFTING

The process for handcrafting cloisonné is a sophisticated process that requires meticulous attention to detail. The copper shapes are hand formed and copper filigree is hand applied to create the intricate designs. Once the filigree design is applied, the enamel color is carefully added by hand. Due to the nature of handcrafting, slight variations in color and finish may occur, making each urn a one of a kind piece of art.
